Impressive Affair.

The formal presentation of a plat of burial ground at Weeks' cemetery to Brannum Post, G. A. R., on Saturday, was an impressive affair. At 2 o'clock a large delegation of G. A. R. men and American Mechanics left Bridgeport. At the cemetery a stand had been built and a flag pole creeted. The ceremonies were opened by Post Commander F. C. Robinson, assisted by Messrs. C. C. Cochran, isaac Henry, Captain Burget McConnaughey and John Giffen. The post ritual was gone through with and the presentation was made by Mayor Williams and received by F. C. Robinson, Rev. Dr. Dixon on the part of the American Mechanics, presented to the post a beautiful flag. His words were eloquent and earnest in particular sentiment. F. C. Robinson responded in receiving in a feeling and appropriate manner. Brannum Post, G. A. R., on Saturday,

Meet To-day and Hear Reports of Delegates to Columbus.

ARRANGING FOR RESUMPTION

At 65-Cent Rate in this Vicinity-Overthe-River Miners were Auxious to Hear the Result of the Convention's Deliberations-Secretary Lewis Consured by Some Miners for His Course at the Convention-No Politics in It.

The executive board of the miners' union of the Pan-Handle district is called to meet at Trades Assembly hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A representation of every mine in the district at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A representation of every mine in the district is desired. The result of the Columbus convention is the cause of the meeting, and the miners want to get together for a general understanding and to be in shape for getting each mine to pay the price in line with the compromise agreement. The sixty-five cent compromise is agreeable to nearly all local miners, who say they would be compelled to work for forty-five cents were it not for the strike, but they object to settling the scale every year in December.

Those scale conferences, even though they occur in midminter, are preferable to the state of affairs previous. The men want to meet the operators to fix prices, and previously they claim the operators wouldn't meet them.

There was some uneasiness among the miners of this city and vicinity Saturday, who feared the coal strike would not be ended. The published accounts of the efforts of Thomas L. Lewis, secretary of the Ohio miners, to prejudice a settlement, by charging President Ratchford with dealing with the manager of Mark Hanna's mines, exasperated many of the Ohio-side miners, who had voted to send the instructions of this section to Columbs with Mr. Lewis, and they were not slow in denouncing his effort to turn the consideration of the strike questions to political account. Mr. Lewis' position was doubtless greatly exaggerated by political writers, but he fact that he made such a reference in a convention to settle a strike has alienated some of the miners over the river. They would scarcely send Thomas as their representative again.

A BIG EXCURSION

Comes From Cleveland Under the Auspices of the Cleveland Press on the C., L. & W. An Incident of the Stop at Bridgeport. The Cleveland Press chaperoned an excursion from Cleveland to Wheeling over

The Cleveland Press chaperoned an excursion from Cleveland to Wheeling over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling rairoad yesterday, and the number of excursionists was far beyond the newspaper promoter and the railroad company. The number of tickets sold was 923 and fully 1,000 people were aboard the train, which was made up of sixteen coaches and a baggage car. The train left Cleveland at 8:30 a. m. and reached Wheeling shortly after 4 p. m., having been delayed en route on account of the inability of the locometive to draw such a heavy train at a high rate of speed.

In Wheeling the visitors took a hasty look over the city and some went out to Wheeling Park. The train left Bridgeport on the return trip at 8:30 o'clock last night and was scheduled to reach the Forest City at 1 o'clock this morning.

When the train-load of excursionists disembarked at Bridgeport yesterday afternoon, the spectacle that met the eye was one to give a conception of the complexity of life as she is lived at the other end of the back river bridge. In the background of this scene is a gospel wagon—Wheeling's—and an audience of a scure or more of listeners is gathered; quite a proper Sunday afternoon function. Unfortunately for the effect this would impress upon the mind of the Sunday excursionist, however, the foreground looms up with Satan's hirelings would impress upon the mind of the Sunday excursionist, however, the foreground looms up with Satan's hirelings going the "pace that kills" in full blast. Eight or ten colored boys are engaged in the entiefing occupation sometimes called "playin" wid de bones,"—shooting "craps" in other words—and, ead to relate, His Satanle Majesty's sideshow is more attractive to the Bridgeport public than the gospel wagon service up the street, a fact that is attested to by the relative size of the audiences.

Unique Entertainment.

Unique Entertainment.
Mrs. H. E. Monroe's entertainment on the life and times of Rev. John Wesley, is exceedingly entertaining. The programme as it will be given at the Opera House next Thursday and Friday evenings, under the auspices of Zane street Methodist church, will be unique and enjoyable. The informal trial of the Wes-leys has in the scene almost forty gentle-men. It is led by the fifers and drum-mers and the English soldiers. These are followed by the vicar and his friends and the Wesleys and their company. The party are all well taken.

The missionary scene opens with the ladies about a tea table sipping their tea and gossiping. Later the invited guests arrive and the peculiarities and mannerisms of the eighteenth century are brought in very neatly. There are three musical numbers in this scene. The different groups as displayed in the windows of the prominent merchanis show the costumes to be very nice and very correct. The sale of reserved seats opens this morning at 9 o'clock at C. A. House's music store, and a rush is expected. It is an opportunity to see a beautiful entertainment and at the same time benefit Zane street M. E. church. The missionary scene opens with th
